Charity calls this week and here's how you can help: eat a burger, order a sundae, attend some galas or play some bingo at one of my favorite neighborhood restaurants in Brooklyn.

- New York City locations of 5 Napkin Burger are donating proceeds to the New York Restoration Project to plant trees for the rest of the month of April. A donation will be made to the project for every Dolly Burger or Dolly Sundae purchased in celebration of the Broadway revival of Hello, Dolly!. The turkey burger is topped with brie, tomato and a rosemary kumquat aioli while the sundae layers coconut ice cream, salted chocolate, caramel sauce, pecans, graham cracker crumble with whipped cream, toasted coconut and shaved chocolate.
