

Manhattan Digest

Celebrate National Hot Toddy Day at These Locations!

By Ryan Shea - Jan 11, 2017  9  0

Today marks National Hot Toddy Day, and no, I'm not talking about Hot Toddy at the local gay bar. This is typically a mixed drink made of liquor and water with honey (or, in some recipes, sugar), herbs (such as tea) and spices, and served hot. To celebrate, some of the best restaurants and mixologists have crafted their own version of what makes a Hot Toddy so great!

Check out their versions and give yourself a try today and throughout the year! Definitely a good excuse to warm up with the bitter cold we've been having.

Credit: 5 Napkin Burger

5 Napkin Burger \(5napkinburger.com\)

It's that time of year again when all you need is a cup of something warm... and spiked. To all you hot toddy fans, 5 Napkin Burger is helping you stay warm this year with their Hot n' Buttered Tennessee. This major upgrade of the classic cocktail is made with Jack Daniels Old No. 7, homemade spiced maple butter and organic apple cider. So whether you're using it to nip that cold in the bud or to just enjoy the fragrant winter-warmer, banish the winter blues with the Hot n' Buttered Tennessee from 5 Napkin. Cheers!

