

NYC's Best New Year's Eve Events for Families

2016/12/20 | rtilyssasmith

Send 2016 out with a bang! Steer clear of the Times Square madness and celebrate the new year at one of these family-friendly celebrations. From fun performances and daytime festivities at kids' museums, to free public gatherings and even a January 1 event, we've got lots of ideas on how both you and the kids can have a blast this New Years. Click through to find the match for your clan!

Celebrate With a Burger (and London)

Head to 5 Napkin Burger to pig out and head home before the nuttiness begins. From 4-7 p.m. on New Year's Eve, all of restaurant's NYC locations (with the exception of the Hell's Kitchen shop) will be getting into the family spirit.

Expect an array of entertainment like live kids' music and puppet shows, plus plenty of balloons, hats and noisemakers. The eatery will be featuring a special happy hour menu in the dining room, kids' milkshakes and a kids' menu. Stick around until 7 p.m. to watch the ball drop in London and say "cheers" with a sparkling cider and champagne toast!

