

Traditional Tastes of Boston- From Lobster Rolls to Beer

Take a look at some must-try treats that Boston is famous for, ranging from steamy Lobster Rolls to hoppy IPA beers.

By cassandra_claire Published: 2016/11/03

Boston. America's hearth. Where it all began. This fiery, patriotic city is bustling with tradition and heritage. Among this heritage is its food. Next time that you are in Boston, check out some of these classic Boston meals to get a real taste of the city.

5 Napkin Burger- Boston

Location
105 Huntington Ave, Boston, MA 02199

Categories
American, Burgers, French Fries, Vegan, Bars, Gluten-Free

Business Hours
Sat: 11:00AM - 12:00PM
Sun: 11:00AM - 11:00PM
Fri: 11:30AM - 12:00PM
Mon - Thu: 11:30AM - 11:00PM

Make Reservation

Wish Went

5 Napkin Burger- Boston Detail Page >

Photo by DGrubs

After grabbing a great burger at this joint, what you really need to fill up on is dessert. Massachusetts is famous for its apples, and by association its apple pies. This small chain has one of the top ranked slices of apple pie in Boston, and you will be head over heels in love the second the cinnamon apples hit your tongue.

- Latest Review for 5 Napkin Burger- Boston -

they only gave me two napkins tho

by thejenini

This beet and carrot burger is the best mistake I made all day!

by rocksteadystyle

