Time Out New York's Battle of the Burger is back and with it comes yet another juicy crop of formidable burgers to choose from. This year's pack ranges from barroom burgers to bistro patties, comforting cheap burgers from diners and luncheonettes to fancy numbers from fine dining restaurants. These are your 40 Battle of the Burger contenders, presented by Budweiser.

5 Napkin Burger

The best reason to visit is spelled out right there on the awning. The namesake burger, a delicious Franco-American handful, features sweet caramelized onions, Comté cheese and herb-infused aioli. Encourage your kids to ignore most of the menu, and stick to the burgers (seven styles in all) and all-American desserts like the rich and generous caramel-brownie sundae.
