Thankful for Burgers

Thanksgiving may be over, but at 5 Napkin Burger the holiday lives on in the form of a “Thanksgiving on a Bun” special.

The New York chain is offering the themed item ($14) through Sunday. The meat in the 10-ounce burger includes ground white and dark turkey; the toppings cover the holiday side-dish gamut, from cornbread to sweet-potato chips to cranberry mayo.

The idea, said a 5 Napkin spokeswoman, is to “get all the wonderful flavors of Thanksgiving in one bite.”
